It is also ordered that the firearms shall be handled in accordance with Administrative Order 95-079, which provides in relevant part:

2. Upon arriving at the courthouse, the case agents bringing with them firearms to be admitted as exhibits in a scheduled trial will announce their intentions and present this court order to the Court Security Officers at the security screening posts.
3. Once notified, the Court Security Officer will escort the case agents, along with the firearms, into the Marshals Service office where the firearms will be inspected and secured by Supervisory Deputy United States Marshals.

4. Once the firearms are determined to be safe, the Court Security Officer and the case agents will transport the firearms to the designated courtroom where the case agents will be responsible for the security of the firearms. For the duration of the trial, it will be the responsibility of the case agents to coordinate with the Marshals Service to facilitate the transport of the firearms by the case agents to and from the appropriate courtroom. During trial, the case agents will be responsible for the security of the firearms.
5. Once the trial is completed, this court order will expire and the firearms will be removed from the courthouse by the DEA.

It is also ordered that the firearms may be stored with the DEA overnight and during other breaks in the trial.
